

In the Name of God, the Infinitely Compassionate and Merciful

Dear Friends of Threshold Society,

We come to you with gratitude for your generous support of the work of Threshold Society and ask that your support continue.

By Grace, we are sustained by the generosity of dear friends who give both financially, and in time and service, to our community. Above all, we receive the unlimited flow of service, resources, attention, and guidance from our beloved teachers who take no formal recompense for all that they offer us, year after year.

Many benefit from Threshold activities and we rely entirely on donations from people who attend gatherings to keep them going. If you are a regular attendee we invite you to consider offering a small regular sum to ensure that we can continue to cover ongoing costs which include renting our weekly London meeting space, and subsidising the numerous events and retreats offered each year by Threshold Society and Rumi's Circle.

Anyone wishing to contribute to Threshold Society, whether as a one-off donation or regular standing order, whatever the sum or means, can contact our treasurer, Siema Taj at treasurer.thresholduk@yahoo.com to arrange this, or make a donation directly to the account below (please let Siema know if you have done this):

The Co-operative Bank
Account Name: Threshold Society
Account no: 65480005
Sort code: 089299

We have been a registered charity since 2012 so are able to claim gift aid which increases donations given by UK tax-payers by 25%. Therefore we urge you to complete and forward to Siema the attached gift aid form to help us make your donation count that significant bit further.

May our Sustainer's Love and Generosity transform our hearts and may the light of our circles shine wherever it is needed. Ya Karim, Ya Razak.

In Love and Friendship,

Threshold Society UK Trustees
